An AmeriCorps member reported allegations that a New Mexico AmeriCorps grantee required members' to engage in prohibited activities by participating in a syringe exchange program.

Investigation disclosed that the Consolidated Appropriation Act of 2016, authorized Federal funds to be used to support of the Syringe Service programs. There was no evidence that AmeriCorps members engaged in prohibited activity when they supported the syringe exchange program. The member also alleged attendance discrepancies and his dissatisfaction about program's management. These allegations were forwarded to CNC S management for follow-up during their oversight of the program.
