

CNCS Staff Failed to Report Suspected Fraud to CNCS-OIG

Closed 9/30/2019

CNCS-OIG completed its investigation regarding allegations that two CNCS employees failed to report a complaint about potential fraud within a CNCS program to CNCS-OIG. The employees acknowledged they understood their reporting obligations but neglected to report the matter to CNCS-OIG, as required by CNCS policy.

Agency/Administrative Actions

CNCS management disagreed that there was a violation of CNCS's policy and elected to take no action in this case.
