

NEW YORK RESIDENT PLEADS GUILTY IN AMTRAK EVOUCHER SCAM

Activity Date: February 20, 2020

Date Posted: March 6, 2020

Case Number: PA-17-0268-O

Web Summary: OIG-WS-2020-314

Adam Micek, a resident of Queens, New York, pleaded guilty in U.S. District Court, Eastern District of New York, on February 20, 2020, to conspiracy to commit wire fraud for his involvement in an Amtrak eVoucher scheme. Micek and his co-conspirators used stolen credit card information to make unauthorized purchases of Amtrak tickets and then cancelled or exchanged those tickets for eVouchers. Subsequently, they sold the fraudulently obtained eVouchers on the internet. Micek's sentencing is pending.