

Summary: NPS Employee Misused Government Purchase Card

Report Date: December 18, 2020

Report Number: 19-0629

The OIG investigated allegations that National Park Service (NPS) employee Stephanie Wallace used another NPS employee's Government purchase card to make personal purchases. We found that Wallace used the employee's purchase card to pay for her children's private school tuition.

Wallace pleaded guilty to theft of Government property. She was sentenced to 5 days of home detention and a probationary term of 1 year, and she was ordered to pay restitution totaling $8,328.24.

This is a summary of an investigative report we issued to the Counselor to the Secretary, who is exercising the delegated authority of the NPS Director.
